THEATRICAL.

"BACHELORS' HONEYMOON" A "GOOD SHOW."

R. S. Porter, manager of the Paris Grand, yesterday received the following telegram:

Dayton, Ohio, December 10, 1911. Manager Opera House, Paris, Ky.

"Bachelor's Honeymoon" packed the house here. Best show of the season.

WILL E. DALE, Manager Theatre.

"A BACHEOR'S HONEYMOON" TONIGHT.

A laughter loving public cannot but appreciate Gilson & Bradfield's production of that great Hoyt Theatre comedy success, "A Bachelor's Honeymoon," which is to be presented at the Grand tonight. Filled with lively, laughing situations, resplendent with sparkling, witty lines, its entire atmosphere pervaded with that full hearted humor for which the great play-wright was noted, this great comedy has well deserved the unanimous verdict of the critics, "The greatest of Laugh plays." The settings are masterpieces of scenic art, the costumes beautiful, and the cast one of real ability.

Pices, dress circle 75 cents, parquette 50 cents, balcony 35 and 50 cents, gallery 25 cents. This is a guaranteed show. Get your seats reserved and save trouble.

AL. G. FIELD SATURDAY.

It's an old time minstrel show without the old time tiresome features. Its old time in so far as the atmosphere and naturalness goes, but its without the old time witticisms and stunts that have been relegated to less progressive progressionists. Its the pronounced progressionist of minstrelsy and has ever been.

Al. G. Field has always been a top notcher in minstrelsy. He does not depend upon the uncertain efforts of any one person to carry his show to success. The many artists comprising his company have something that pleases all patrons. Burt Swor, than whom there is no more entertaining comedian, Little Johnny Healy, the man with the suit case, Doc Quigley, himself again, Gov. Bowen, Olie Dilworth, Nick Glynn, Henry Neiser, Herbert Wilison, Jack Allman, Walter Sherwood, Jack Richards, Paul LaLonde, Harry Sievers, Alton Robertson, Boni Mack, Ray Powell, Will H. Starr and a half hundred others including Al. Thurburn's solo orchestra, Will Walters' Banner Band. Its coming has always been an event in local amusements. Its coming this time is arousing unusual interest.

Reserved seats at Mitchell & Blakemore's Thursday. Prices, lower floor $1, balcony 75 cents, gallery 50 cents. No free list.

Bridge to be Raised.

The new Louisville & Nashville bridge spanning Houston creek will be raised about eighteen inches to compare with the new grade established at this point of the road, which was made necessary in establishing a grade for the double track. According to the engineers the work will be completed in four hours, when a sufficient force will be employed and the structure raised between trains and traffic will not be hindered. The engineers plan to raise the structure the latter part of the week.

Accused Men Prove Alibi.

A dispatch from Carlisle Friday was as follows: "An alibi was proved by the defendants against whom W. H. Scott and Mrs. Mary Honaker, charging they had been whipped by the crowd, recently swore out warrants. The examining trial was held before Justice J. T. Clay here and they were each acquitted and discharged. The defendants were Fran Crouch, John Bettus and Dawse Terrell, of Bourbon county, and John Scott, Joe Scott and Howard Scott, of Nicholas county, all prominent farmers of the two counties. "Crouch and Howard Scott proved by three witnesses that they were in Bourbon county on the night of October 28, last, when it was alleged in the warrant, the defendants went to the house of Mrs. Honaker. Joe proved by a witness that he was fox hunting, and Dawse Terrell and John Scott proved by two witnesses that they were each at their homes, and John Bettus proved by a witness that he was at the home of M. Riggs. All of the defendants proved their whereabouts on the night of the alleged whipping and were acquitted. "Crouch is a son-in-law and the three Scotts are sons of W. H. Scott, one of the prosecuting witnesses."
